Dear Friends,

After a chilly spring, the heat is on! It is an exciting time for DHHMO! Here are some of the events that have happened so far, with many more to come:

Our local Ephpheta Sodality of St. John the Baptist—International Catholic Deaf Association—United States Section (ICDA-US) Chapter #7 hosted their Midwest Regional Conference here in Milwaukee on April 27–28. We had over 90 people participate in this conference. Bishop James Schuerman celebrated Mass at Clare Hall Chapel, home of the Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi (OSF). Some of the participants of the conference have attended the St. John School for the Deaf and they had an opportunity to meet their old teacher, Sr. Humbeline, who attended the Mass along with the other sisters. We are very grateful to celebrate this Mass with the Sisters.

Fr. Donald Zerkel, a former director of St. John's, provided us with the Chalice to use to think: Do we teach our children, too?

St. Margaret grew up to be a holy and modest person who worshipped God very reverently. She went to visit her father who was impressed by her. But, when he found out about her Catholic faith and that she decided (which was unusual too at the time) to offer God a beautiful gift: to remain a virgin in order to be the Spouse of Jesus. She said that nothing will separate her from the love of Christ (Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 8:38-39). He tried to change her mind and because he saw that she won't change because of her great love for God, he was angry, disowned her, and drove her away. I can't imagine a father who would drive away his own daughter? We can't forget that no other relationship takes greater importance than our relationship with God. What happens after doesn't surprise me: the holy woman who took care of St. Margaret adopts her. This is what a holy person would do. St. Margaret cheerfully became a servant to her at home, but at the same time, St. Margaret worked hard on constantly improving her own self: to be holy like Jesus. This means that she won't gossip, lie, cheat, say bad words, being patient, putting others’ needs first before her own, and on…

During this time, the Roman Emperor Diocletian began to persecute the Catholics. One day, the prefect (which was like a regional governor) whose name is Olybrius, saw St. Margaret taking care of her “adopted mother’s” sheep. Lustful, he wanted her to be his concubine or wife. After trying to convince her through his messenger, even with threats to punish her if she refused, she refused to marry him because she said: “I can not be espoused to your master, because I am the spouse of Our Lord Jesus Christ. I am promised to Him, and to Him I wish to belong.” Angry, he had her arrested and brought to him during a public trial. When she appeared before him he thus addressed her: “What is your name and condition?” She replied: “I am called Margaret, and belong to a noble family. I adore Christ and serve Him.” The prefect now advised her to abandon the worship of a crucified God. Margaret asked him, “How do you know that we worship a crucified God?” The prefect replied: “From the writings of the [Catholic] Christians.” [St. Margaret answered, “The books of the Christians would have told you that the Crucified rose on the third day, and that He ascended into heaven.] Is it love of truth to believe in the abasement of Christ and to reject His glorification, when both are related in the selfsame?”

As a result, he had her tortured, placed on a rack, and pierced/torn with iron combs (see picture on the left… see how horrible it looked).

Then she was thrown in prison to die because she was still alive. What happens is really interesting, unusual, and exciting that is shown in the paintings and statues of St. Margaret. St. Margaret did something important: she thanked God for the victory that she didn’t give up from the torture, the rack, and the iron combs. Also important is that she also asked God for help in the days ahead. This is important for us in today’s world too when people say and do mean things because we are Catholics.

Now, suddenly, Satan appears to St. Margaret as a furious dragon threatening to swallow her, which he did. Lucky for St. Margaret, Satan didn’t chew her up so she was in his stomach. Thankfully, St. Margaret had a cross on her that irritated the Satan-dragon’s stomach. She used the cross to cut Satan-dragon open from the inside of his stomach and escape! Having a crucifix as a necklace and/or a rosary on you is always helpful to win against Satan! (Look at the different pictures of her which you see of her with Satan-dragon. Look for the image of two paintings together for those were painted by the famous painter, Raphael!). Her empty prison cell became filled with heavenly Light and she was filled with the Great Love of God! At the same time, God healed all her wounds that not 1 scar was left on her body!

The next day, St. Margaret was brought before Alybrius. Surprised by her complete recovery, he said it was because of the Roman gods and that she must thank them by sacrificing to the Roman gods (idols). St. Margaret evangelized by saying that she had been healed by the power of Christ alone (note she added “alone”) and that she did not like the Roman idols. Angry, Olybrius had others burn her, but the flames didn’t hurt her. This was a miracle witnessed by many that many converted to the Catholic faith! Then, she was tied up hands and feet and thrown into a cauldron of icy water, but, because of her prayer, a violent earthquake occurred that her bonds were broken and she came out of the water not hurt. More people who saw this converted to the Catholic faith. Finally, Olybrius, the prefect, had her head chopped off. The date of her death was still around the end of the 3rd century to very early 4th century (275-305 AD).

Attached is the Novena to St. Margaret of Antioch (on the next page). Please pray and meditate on this for at least 9 days in a row and she (in heaven) will have Jesus bless you in a huge way!

St. Margaret of Antioch, pray for us!

A few more interesting details about St. Margaret of Antioch:

- Her relics are spread all over Europe.
- The Greek Orthodox call her “St. Marina the Great Martyr” and celebrate her feast day on July 17 instead.
- St. Margaret is one of the saints who spoke to St. Joan of Arc.
- She is a patron saint for people with backache, kidney diseases, and women in childbirth. Her name is called upon for deliverance from demonic possession (which makes sense).
- You are never too young to be an evangelizer!
- Her venerable (holy) hand is in Mount Athos, at the Batopedi monastery.

She is one of the 14 Holy Helpers, which I never knew until doing research for this article. I learned that they are a group of 14 saints that were called upon during the horrible Black Death that devastated Europe from 1346-1349. St. Margaret of Antioch was one of the saints that were called upon to help the people against the plague and sudden death. There is a book about this by Fr. Bonaventure Hammer, O.F.M. I will definitely read this book this summer! Hope you will too!

PRAISING GOD AND BRINGING “GIFTS TO THE TABLE”

Our local chapter, Ephpheta Sodality of St. John the Baptist-ICDA Chapter #7, hosted the International Catholic Deaf Association-United States Section, Midwest Regional 41st Biennial Conference on April 27-28, 2018 at the Hilton Garden Inn-Milwaukee Airport. The theme was “Come to the Table.” The reason why I chose this topic is that I heard Fr. Christopher Klusman talking about the importance of family, people and friends gathering around the table both at home and at Church. Later, I was at a retreat house in New Jersey and saw a picture of Jesus standing at the end of the table with the family circled around the table. That picture inspired me and I felt it was a sign to have the conference theme, “Come to the Table.” Eight wonderful people stepped up to be part of the committee. I asked Fr. Christopher if he could be our keynote speaker since this idea came from his inspirational homily. After several meetings over the year, our committee was able to see their hard work in action.

The conference opened with the ODM (Officers, Delegates, and Moderators) meeting then we welcomed the participants with a tailgate theme reception. Fr. Christopher explained the unique and important roles the tables have in our lives, both spiritual (in church) and secular (at home). Saturday morning, we continued with the meeting and had our election. Congratulations to the new 2018-2022 officers: Patricia Flannery-Slisz, President; Denise Van Thyne, Secretary; Toby Petrie, Treasurer; Margaret Calteaux, Past President. A special thank you to our former officer, Jean Cox, Past President, who has dedicated her time and support the past four years. We took a break for a light lunch before we headed back to the meeting room for the second half of Fr. Christopher’s presentation.

I want to pause for a moment here and thank Jamie and her staff at the Hilton Garden Inn-Airport for their outstanding job in taking care of us. Their extraordinary services helped make this conference a successful one.

The facility was just the right size to have the meeting on one side of the hall, and the dining area on the other side. One participant commented that this was one of the best conferences – no one got lost in the hotel or had to walk far for food!

It was very chilly and windy when we boarded the bus to Clare Hall for Mass. Most Reverend James T. Schuerman, Auxiliary Bishop of Milwaukee (center) along with five concelebrants and Deacon: (left to right) Fr. Michael Depcik from Detroit; Deacon David Sommers from Milwaukee; Fr. Roberto Mercado from Chicago; Fr. Joseph Bruce from Boston; Fr. Christopher Klusman from Milwaukee; and Fr. Bill Key from Milwaukee. It was a privilege to have Joseph Bloemer from Omaha to serve as a Knights of Columbus Honor Guard. Our blessed thanks to the Sisters of St. Francis for letting us celebrate the Holy Mass and being with us at the Lord’s Table in their beautiful Chapel in Clare Hall.

The conference concluded with a banquet at the hotel. As the people gathered around their tables, one person said to me, “My, oh my, what a beautiful setting! It feels like the table in the Babette’s Feast movie. Wonder if we will have any French food!” I assured them with a smile that we will not have French food but the traditional American meal of meat, potatoes, vegetables and dessert. The committee members celebrated joyfully knowing their hard working plans were successful. Waving hands to them and praising God for giving them the gifts to bring to the table. It is an honor and privilege to serve and plan this 2018 Midwest Conference.

See you at the Table,

Margaret Calteaux, Chairperson

2018 ICDA-US MWR Conference
BELIEVE GOD HAS PLANS FOR YOU

This annual update for the Deaf Ministry is a little different. After twelve years of serving as Coordinator of Deaf Ministry for St. Andrew, I am retiring. Prior to taking over coordinating, I had also taught hearing high school religion, or Deaf religion, or both, with a cumulative total of over 35 years.

I thought perhaps it might be a good idea to share with you my witness story of how, even when we are totally clueless of what God has planned for us, if we allow Him to lead and we follow, amazing things can happen, and in the end His will is done.

I want to start out that my interest in the Deaf and sign language happened over 50 years ago when I was in middle school attending St. Boniface Catholic School in Manitowoc. Walking home from school one day, I was drawn to two men standing on our corner. Their hands were moving expressively but no words were coming out of their mouths. I was fascinated! These guys were communicating with each other through their hands and to me it was an amazing, elegant, secret, code. How did they know what each other was saying? I inappropriately stared at them for a long time. Not to make fun of them, but instead I was mesmerized and in awesome admiration by this skill that they had.

After I graduated from Roncalli Catholic High School, I began dating the man who I would later marry. At that time, he was attending college in La Crosse and I was still in Manitowoc. To fill my lovesick evenings, I discovered the technical school was offering Sign Language classes. I remembered the impression these two men made on me in middle school and enrolled in Sign Language I and II. I had no intention of working with Deaf, but I really wanted to learn this silent, beautiful language.

Fast forward a few years later, and we are married and moved to southeastern Wisconsin, Whitewater. I had never heard of the city of Delavan in my life until we moved down here and then someone told me that the state school for the Deaf was located in Delavan. I couldn’t believe my luck! I heard this voice inside me saying, “Be not afraid.” So, I went and applied to sub there. For two years, I served as a substitute and then was hired as a permanent employee and just completed my 41st year there!

As we kept adding to our family, by the time our 4th child was born, I was fortunate enough to make the decision to move to part-time at Wisconsin School for the Deaf (WSD) and be with my children more. As they journeyed and started school, I filled in the afternoons by becoming an educational interpreter for the Delavan-Darien School district for 10 years, and later served as an educational interpreter for another 10 years at the Wisconsin School for the Visually Handicapped in Janesville.

Five years into our marriage, I became part of the team of people who were teaching Catholic religion classes to the Deaf after school and evenings at St. Andrew. Through the years, up to now, I continued teaching either the Deaf, or the hearing high school, or many years both, about our faith. Then twelve years ago, I was hired part-time to be Coordinator of Religious Education for Deaf students. Within a year, the job transformed into Coordinator of the entire Deaf Ministry for St. Andrew.

My whole life journey had been orchestrated by God all along! This was a Godincidence! All along God had been preparing me for this ministerial role. He prepared me in ways unknown to me at the time for this mission to teach our faith to Deaf students. I look back and am so amazed at how His plan for me came to fruition.

For the past two years I have been a bit worried and in prayer wondering who would take over for me when it came time for me to retire from Deaf Ministry at St. Andrew. This year God answered my prayer and showed me that now is the time for me to pass the baton of the Deaf Ministry, because the one He chose to carry on is here and ready. When God speaks, I have learned to listen. I have no idea yet how God wants me to serve Him and His Church next. I think he is not finished with me and has work, another mission, for me to do. I have faith that he will show me. One of my favorite passages from the Bible is Psalm 46: 10 “Be still and know that I am God.” So, I will wait and see where He leads me. My other favorite passage is Jeremiah 29:11-13 “For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. You will seek me and find me; when you seek me with all your heart.”

I have many happy memories, but for me the 4 things that stick in my mind that give me joy working in the Deaf Ministry are:

#1 The blessed happiness and thrill to share the story of God's love for us to many students who were “hearing” it for the first time! #2 Supporting and advocating for the Deaf to become readers at Sunday Masses. #3 Getting the wheels rolling for Deaf religious art represented in our Church, giving a nod to the decades the Deaf have been enriching and being part of St. Andrew. (That project is in the works being spearheaded by a member of our Deaf Community, Bob Paul.) #4 This last one is actually not connected to the Deaf Ministry, but our motto, “You Belong Here,” was a rallying cry I suggested in Dreaming and Visioning Committee and I am grateful that our beloved parish embraced it.

I have been richly blessed having the honor to share our faith with the Catholic students at WSD throughout the years. Being welcomed by the Catholic adult Deaf Community, having them share their culture and language, and developing beautiful friendships with many is a treasure that I cannot put into words. Every class, every encounter, was a moment when I, too, became the student and learned priceless lessons from them and through them. My heart overflows with gratitude for the Deaf Community! It is with joy that I hand the leadership of this ministry onto someone else. It will be exciting!

Believe God has plans for you. Be open to all the “Godincidences” in your life.

With Praise and thanks to God,

Patty Kostechka

St. Andrew Parish, Delavan

MEN OF CHRIST 2018 CONFERENCE

Fr. Christopher Klusman

Another person had accepted to write up an article about the Men of Christ 2018 Conference. Due to situations beyond that person’s control, that person asked me to write this article instead.

Many Deaf women from the Women of Christ 2017 Conference last November still talk about how spiritually moving it was for them. I prayed that the same would be for our Deaf men attending this conference on March 10, 2018 at Miller High Life Theatre in downtown Milwaukee, next to the former Mecca Arena (currently UW-Milwaukee Panther Arena). This year’s theme was Persevering Through the Storm.

During the day, there were Confessions available in which there were long lines. It was truly beautiful to see, as this Sacrament is an enormous gift from God. I pray that you go to Confession on a monthly basis. Many of our saints, like St. John Paul the Great and St. Teresa of Calcutta, went to Confession … weekly! That is one of their secrets to holiness!

In addition, there was Adoration all day, too. I know one of our Deaf men went to spend time with Our Lord. Imagine the joy of sitting face to face with Jesus?

Our conference began on a high note with a famous apologist. The word, “apologist” looks deceiving as it looks like someone who keeps saying, “I’m sorry.” An “apologist” (from the Latin and Greek adjective meaning “defense”) is someone who defends the Catholic faith by explaining to others what it means, as well as helping to correct their misunderstandings. God calls all of us to be apologists. Our first presenter was a famous Catholic apologist, Mr. Tim Staples. If you haven’t read any of his books, I highly recommend them. He grew up Southern Baptist. He joined the Marine Corps. He shared an amazing story about how he met a Marine who is a great Catholic apologist. Mr. Staples tried to challenge him by proving Catholicism is wrong, but the Marine helped him convert to Catholicism in 1988! He is so energetic, funny, entertaining, and brilliant!

A powerful moment was when all the men and boys who were thinking of a possible vocation in the priesthood, were invited to go up on stage. Man after man, boy after boy, all went on stage, filling up the stage until it was crowded! We, the Deaf men, were so touched, that many got emotional. A special prayer was said for them. Please keep these men and boys in your prayers for their future!

At 10:45 am, a famous priest, Fr. Robert Spitzer, came to talk about his new book. I couldn’t believe I was seeing him live because I saw him (and Mr. Staples) on EWTN many, many times. You would agree with me that Fr. Spitzer is brilliant!! He has a brain like Albert Einstein. When I try to read his explanations on EWTN, my head “hurts” because it is so thick, Ph.D quality, heavy, and very high-level stuff. But, it is good to challenge your own selves to step up higher and learn more complex things. He talked about the Four Levels of Happiness and what it really means, and how we can have happiness. As Fr. Spitzer explained, happiness is not what we really think it is: there is more to what really appears to be.

We then had a lunch break, chatting with each other and sharing our thoughts and experiences with an incredible morning! We prayed the rosary going through each decade throughout the day. What's cool about this is that, for each Hail Mary, we prayed for each state from A to Z.

After lunch, we heard another famous and highly-talented person, Mr. Dave Durand. He is a devoted Catholic man who is currently the CEO and co-founder of Best Version Media, an international media company located in Brookfield, Wisconsin. He is a best-selling author, radio personality, and etc. He was named one of the top 100 Minds in America on the topic of Personal Development. It was so refreshing and inspiring to see a highly talented man who loves being Catholic and strived to live his life loving, praising, and imitating Jesus Christ!

Last, but not least, Fr. Cliff Ermatinger presented. He is a very holy, humble, and important priest. He shared such fatherly wisdom for us men. Listening to him was a great experience on how our lives can be made better by being the men that God calls us to be and the importance of prayer, Sacraments, moral life/virtues, and never underestimating Satan and his demons.

Fr. Rocky Hoffman, of Relevant Radio, came to lead us in the Stations of the Cross. It was very moving because they showed scenes from the movie, The Passion. It always amazes me how much Jesus suffered for us, which shows His infinite Love for each of us. It was incredibly moving to experience and pray with this during the Lenten season.

We closed the Men of Christ 2018 Conference with a Mass presided by Archbishop Jerome Listecki. He is our “apostle” of this Archdiocese of Milwaukee and an important father figure for us all. It was a great joy to receive Jesus’ Body and Blood as evidence that Jesus is with us and how we are to apply everything we learned and gained today in our daily lives. We can't wait for next year’s Men of Christ 2019! Please don't miss this! We were thankful to have wonderful interpreters during this conference and for the Men of Christ’s support of this. Please share this with your male relatives, friends, and parishioners to attend next year! God bless you all!
Stations of the Cross Reenactment

On Thursday, March 22, 2018, all of the 4th graders, including Zack Zoellick, son of Todd and Sissy Zoellick, performed wonderfully the Stations of the Cross at St. Roman Parish and School. Zack acted in the roles of a Roman soldier and narrator. The live reenactment (with a sign language interpreter) took over an hour, filled with action that moved people to a wide array of emotions. For several months prior to the performance, they practiced very hard which was clearly evident as to the detail made through the acting, speaking, and singing. Great job, Zack, and all the 4th graders! We’re proud of you!

▲ Zack and the 4th Graders made a grand entrance that ended with a powerful song!

▲ Zack showed great confidence in his narrating skills during a Station.

▲ Zack, as a Roman soldier, leads Jesus carrying the Cross.

▲ Zack, as a Roman soldier, nails Jesus to the Cross with the other Roman soldiers.

▲ This is the grand conclusion, with each group departing to the back with an amazing song!

▲ The Crucifixion scene was incredibly moving.

▲ Zack sings as Simon helps Jesus carry His Cross.
