

MASS ON THE BORDER

ON APRIL 1, CATHOLIC BISHOPS WILL PRAY FOR IMMIGRATION REFORM AND THOSE WHO HAVE DIED TRYING TO CROSS THE BORDER.

PLEASE JOIN THEM.

When: Tuesday, April 1st, 2014
9am (please note this is an outdoor Mass)

Where: Border Wall
N. Nelson Ave & E. International St
Nogales, AZ 85621

Led by His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, the bishops will commemorate the deaths of migrants in the U.S. desert and pray for immigration reform. A press conference will follow.

Why:

Following the example given by Pope Francis at the Italian island of Lampedusa, where the Holy Father remembered migrants from Africa who have died trying to reach the island and Europe, the bishops will call attention to the humanitarian consequences of the broken U.S. immigration system.

In Attendance: His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston
Most Reverend Eusebio Elizondo, Auxiliary Bishop of Seattle and Chairman, USCCB Committee on Migration
Most Reverend Gerald F. Kicanas, Bishop of Tucson
