FROM THE VICAR FOR CLERGY

Fr. Nathan Reesman

Dear Friends:

Praised be Jesus Christ! In this Summer 2023 edition of The Cincture, please find the listing of this year’s appointments for priests and parish directors. I again want to offer a profound “thanks” to everyone who contributed to the final outcome of this process: the Placement Board, everyone who accepted assignments with generous hearts, and of course, Archbishop Listecki, who ultimately makes the decision on each assignment. We are grateful to our extern priests and religious order priests who occupy a valuable place in our archdiocesan life here in Milwaukee, and of course to our senior priests whose daily generosity allow us to maintain the sacramental coverage that we have. This listing represents layers and layers of Gospel-inspired generosity that is truly inspiring.

As we look to the appointments for coming years, we will continue to organically link our placement process with our ongoing planning process across the Archdiocese of Milwaukee in order to best utilize our resources. I would envision this to be a slow and gradual realigning of more local areas (case by case) with parishes linked as clusters under a pastor, together with one or more associate pastors, so that we can lessen our current number of what I term “administrative centers” of parish life. We’ve been doing this for many years now each year, and I expect it will gradually continue until we reach a more comfortable equilibrium of required pastorates across the whole archdiocese. This is a reality that will continue to rely on everyone’s generosity, flexibility, and patience as we deal with constantly shifting variables. It is more of a “mindset” than it is a “master plan” at this point. I invite everyone’s prayers and openness as we all keep walking that pathway together.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF DIACONATE FORMATION

THE ROLE OF THE PASTOR AND PARISH COMMUNITY IN ADMISSION AND SELECTION PROCEDURES FOR THE ASPIRANT PATH

Deacon Dale Nees

“The inquirer who seeks consideration for ordination to the diaconate needs to enter in to dialogue with his parish community. It is the pastor who initially presents him for consideration into diaconal formation...” (National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States of America - NDFMLPD No. 182)

I am picking up where my last article left off. Once a man, and if married, his wife, has completed an intake, attended the full discernment series (four sessions), and has been determined to be free of canonical impediments or irregularities, an Endorsement Packet may be requested from Diaconate Formation. At this point, the inquirer has already been in dialogue with the parish community and, in particular, his pastor for some time. I say this because the Endorsement Packet is the vehicle for the pastor to present him for consideration into diaconal formation. It is through meeting with the man, or couple if married, and filling out the packet that the pastor “confirms he is a practicing Catholic of good repute and in good standing.” It will also “attest that the man shows evidence of the qualities, attitudes, experience, and spirituality deemed necessary for admission into formation, namely:

- a. He is actively involved in parish and other community service.
- b. He is in full communion with the Church (at least five years should elapse between a convert’s or returning Catholic’s entry into the Church and his acceptance into formation; care must be given to someone in whom a sudden conversion experience seems to

- precipitate a diaconal vocation).
- c. He is in a stable marriage, if married, or in a mature celibate state of life, if single.
- d. If married, he has the consent of his wife.
- e. He is properly motivated and gives evidence of an overall personal balance and moral character.
- f. He is a frequent participant in adult faith enrichment opportunities (e.g., retreats, days of reflection, spiritual direction, study of Scripture and church teachings).
- g. He is free of canonical impediments or irregularities” NDFMLPD No.182. (In the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, we do this step prior to endorsement).

Once the inquirer is presented to the diocese by his pastor, an application is provided and “the formal process for admission begins. This initial discernment continues with particular focus on the applicant’s abilities and potential for ordained ministry. Both the applicant and the diocesan Church enter into an intensive screening process.” NDFMLPD No.181

I appreciate the wonderful support pastors are to men currently in the formation program. And I look forward to a whole new group of aspirants and their families that will begin classes in September 2024. Soon you will be receiving rack cards to help with promoting this incredible ministry (pictured above). If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Diaconate Formation.

Deacon Dale Nees

WITH OPEN HEARTS

Brenda Cline

Working with all of our parishes and priests in transition this year has been a great gift! Thank you for opening your hearts and doors to the transition process, which I understand brings both blessings and opportunities for you and your parish communities. You continue to be in my prayers amidst these changes.

In the spirit of Pentecost, there are two experiences that touched my heart deeply these past six months. First, in looking at the Spring listing, you will see that many of our open parishes this year were in the heart of our city, where resources are often short. Yet, my heart was opened to their abundant diversity, culture, and faith! I was humbled to hear the stories of their churches, their families, their struggles, and most profoundly, their hopes and prayers for the Church. I am grateful for their tremendous witness to the Gospel in our archdiocese. I have kept them in my heart and prayers in a new way since meeting them, and invite your prayers and partnership for their mission as well.

Secondly, you may know that we work closely with the immigration attorneys at Catholic Charities to navigate a quagmire of issues for the wonderful foreign priests who serve our diocese. I am humbled each time I visit Catholic Charities in West Milwaukee and see these attorneys working compassionately with individuals, families, and our priests. I have a new awareness of the mission territory we have become as we welcome priests from nearly every continent to serve in our parishes. I have a deep appreciation for the challenges they face in leaving their own homes to serve in a foreign land and language, and am grateful for their unique gifts and global worldview. I invite you to join me in praying for these priests and the communities they serve, which adds richness to our shared faith.

Thank you all for your continued ministry in our archdiocese. I look forward to seeing you at the Eucharistic Congress on June 10, 2023.

*“As the body is one though it has many parts,
and all the parts of the body,
though many, are one body,
so also Christ.”*

— 1 Corinthians 12:12

NEW RESOURCE COMING SOON – ONLINE MASS ATTENDANCE SURVEY

Mass attendance is an important source of information for our priorities of Catholic Identity, Evangelization, and Stewardship, and the missionary planning to act on those priorities. Knowledge of continuous Mass counts provides valuable data as an indicator of parish health and vibrancy – sharing the gift of Sunday, deepening relationships with Jesus Christ, and spreading our faith. Knowledge of seasonal trends also provides planning information for evangelization efforts.

Beginning in July 2023 – the start of the new fiscal year – and every month thereafter, all parishes will be asked to facilitate an actual count of the number of people, both children and adults, attending weekend Masses, both on Saturdays and Sundays. Parishes sharing a pastor will be asked to record actual counts of each of the Masses at each of the parishes. Individual parishes with multiple sites should record actual counts for each of the Masses at all locations.

A new online report form is being created to easily record and submit Mass counts on a monthly basis. Instructions for using the new form will be sent to each parish prior to July 1, 2023.

Please contact Laura Engel, Director, Missionary Planning and Leadership, with any questions regarding this important source of data from our parishes. She can be reached at 414-769-3354 or engell@archmil.org.

MEET TOM FREDRICKSON

Deacon Dale Nees

Pentecost greetings from the Office of Parish and School Human Resources! I had the pleasure of joining the Archdiocese of Milwaukee in April and am looking forward to serving you as the new Parish and School HR Director.

First, I want to thank each of you for serving the Church in a challenging time and in a challenging position. It is truly an honor to give back to the Church after experiencing Christ's grace within my own parish and family. My wife Dana and I have two grown children, Nathan and Megan, and are active members of St. Mary Parish in Hales Corners. I've been blessed to serve on the Pastoral Council, travel to our sister parish in Haiti and serve as a RCIA sponsor for several individuals. Recently, I had the pleasure of leading the St. Mary Dynamic Mens Group, which has been a spiritual blessing in my life.

Even before starting my work for the archdiocese, I realized the close ties between my faith life and professional life. I am honored to have retired from the Air Force after a 36-year career. My final role with the Air Force was with the 128th Air Refueling Wing at Mitchell Field, where I served as the Wing Command Chief, the Senior Enlisted leader. My work in that capacity was in the areas of employee engagement, leadership development, organizational development, and compliance. I was also an active leadership coach and mentor, and some of my most impactful experiences involved advising multiple leaders as they navigated tough employee situations. I could not have served in this capacity without my faith in Jesus as my Lord and Savior. I learned to lean on Jesus with each step in responsibility.

The three key components of my Air Force career carry over nicely into the world of HR in the Church: setting employee expectations, making decisions, and holding people accountable. It's the accountability component that is always the trickiest – people are people. Please know that our office is here to help you navigate those tricky interactions. One of the ways we will serve you is by offering HR Leadership Workshops this summer, on the “hot” HR topics of recruitment, and managing employee performance. Our Spring HR Leadership Workshop sparked wonderful discussion among the attendees, which we hope to incorporate into the upcoming sessions on August 3, 2023. Please visit <https://archmil.regfox.com/pastor-workshops-for-leaders-summer-series> for more information and to register. Hope to see you there! Until then, I look forward to working with you on all things HR. I can be reached at fredricksont@archmil.org or 414-769-3370.

Pio Nono in January 1941, shortly before it became St. Francis Minor Seminary

Initially founded in 1870 as Catholic Normal School and Pio Nono College, the school operated as a high school of boys until 1941, when the Archdiocese of Milwaukee converted it into St. Francis Minor Seminary. After building DeSales Preparatory Seminary, however, in 1965, the archdiocese reopened Pio Nono as a boys' high school.

THROUGH THE YEARS...

St. Robert of Newminster – Original Church Building in 1913

St. Robert of Newminster Parish was incorporated in 1912. The first Mass was celebrated in a small wooden building hastily constructed on the south side of Mineral Spring Rd. (Capitol Dr.) in June 1913. A permanent church/school building was erected by October 1913, and the wooden church was razed.

SYNOD PRAYER FOR THE MISSION OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF MILWAUKEE

*Almighty and ever living God, we praise you and we bless you,
for you are great indeed!
Grant, we pray,
as on that first Pentecost,
that tongues of fire may descend upon us,
and that the driving wind of your Holy Spirit
may blow boldly into our hearts.
Loving God, we ask you,
make us effective and holy witnesses
of the death and resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ, increase our faith
through the sacramental life of the Church, grant us courage to follow you
as faithful disciples.
Embolden us, O God,
so that we may go forth to proclaim your Gospel and renew the face of the earth.
In this Archdiocese of Milwaukee,
we humbly pray for strength and fortitude
to follow your great commission:
to go and make disciples of all people,
living our faith through word and deed.
Through the intercession of St. John the Evangelist, patron of the archdiocese, and Mary, Mother of the Church,
we ask all this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*
