VIP Highlights – Are you ready for Nov. 5?

St. Bernard Parish in Wauwatosa has a fun-filled day planned for the VIP event. In addition to tours of the sacristy, the pipe organ, a community art show, and five lucky winners will be drawn for a chance to tour St. Bernard's Bell Tower. A lengthy climb up a skinny ladder, a few flights of small stairs, and a narrow crawl to the top, this exclusive tour is only available through the VIP event.

VIP Highlights – Something for Everyone!

The Human Concerns Programs at All Saints Parish serves thousands of people in need each year. In fact, the All Saints Bedrolls Ministry turns donated fabric and blankets into warm bedrolls for our homeless brothers and sisters. Located in the rectory basement workshop, the past two years has produced 50 bedrolls for the House of Peace and Repairers of the Breach.

In addition, the All Saints Parish Food Pantry and Meal Programs were established to bring the person and the Mission of Jesus Christ to the neighborhood – come see all that's involved to help feed hundreds of people per month.
