Have a Blessed Lenten Season!

TERRI'S MEMO

Dear Friends,

We are towards the end of winter, as I look out the window, I see the glitters on the white snow that shows one of the beauty of God's creation. We are also in the middle of Lent and this journey is very special and spiritual for me because I can feel God's presence as we continue to move forward with the "Year of Faith." A lot has been of mention about the Vatican II Council and the history of our Church. Most recently was the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI. Join with me to pray for all of the Cardinals as the gather together in conclave to select our new pope to be the leader for the future of the Catholic Church.

The Deaf and Hard of Hearing Advisory Council are working on the Pastoral plan. We have planned some events for the next few months for the future of our Deaf Catholic Community such as RASL workshop training for the interpreters on the New Roman Missal, Mass of Atonement with Archbishop Listecky, and Trip to the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help in Champion, WI. We will have a special Mass for Deaf Hispanics and their families and friends on Sunday, April 7th at 12:00 Noon at St. Roman Parish. Fr. Christopher Klusman will preside in ASL with Spanish voice interpreter. See the announcement on page 3 for more information.

I attended the National Catholic Office for the Deaf (NCOD) conference this past January in Phoenix, AZ. One of the highlights of the conference was Fr. Bill Key, who has worked in the Milwaukee Deaf Ministry Program, received the Fr. David Walsh award for Pastoral Worker of the Year. Congratulations, Fr. Key!

The Deaf and Hard of Hearing Office continue to work on gathering materials for a resource center and provide information to the parishes and community.

Blessings,

Terri Matenaer, Coordinator
Deaf/Hard of Hearing Ministry

St. Andrew Parish DEAF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION MINISTRY SHARING THE GOOD NEWS

Catechist Tom Meitner administered the ashes to the Catholic Deaf students from WSD as we began our journey into Lent.

Students in Delavan learned in Biblical times people put on sackcloth and covered themselves in ashes to show sorrow for sin. TaoYi took her turn feeling how rough and not comfortable sackcloth feels. We were glad we do not wear sackcloth now. That really itches!

St. Andrew Deaf religious ed. students are sealed with the sign of the cross in ashes. Our goal is to "repent and believe in the Gospel."

Peg Stachowiak fixed the old felt banners that were made by the Sisters from St. John's School for the Deaf and are used for teaching the Deaf students.

Catholic Stewardship Appeal

Alive in Faith, the theme of the 2013 Appeal, is a hopeful energizing message that speaks to how we, as disciples of Jesus Christ, should lead our lives. Indeed, our faith must be active! One cannot simply say they have faith without demonstrating that faith through deeds, through actions. Faith is meant to be lived fully ~ without reservation, condition or constraint ~ to the benefit of our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. Be Alive in Faith through the Catholic Stewardship Appeal. The Catholic Stewardship Appeal offers each of us a unique opportunity to support Catholic life by witnessing to the Word of God! By making a gift to the appeal, you can help sustain a broad range of life-changing ministries and programs that significantly impact people's lives. The appeal also supports Deaf and Hard of Hearing Ministry services. Please make the most generous gift you can to the 2013 Catholic Stewardship Appeal. For more information visit www.catholicappeal.org.

The Deaf and Hard of Hearing Ministry Office is taking part in the Walk4Hearing to help raise funds for our mission which is to enable all people who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing to participate fully in the liturgical, educational, pastoral, spiritual, and human concerns ministries in the Church as well as to support the HLAA's mission which is to open the world of communication to people with hearing loss by providing information, education, support and advocacy.

We need your support to help raise funds for our office to serve the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Milwaukee and spread the awareness of the national issue on hearing loss.

Please join and walk with the Archdiocese Deaf/Hard of Hearing Ministry Office team on June 8, 2013 at the Veterans Park on Lincoln Memorial Drive by the Milwaukee Lakefront.

A blessed Lenten season to you. During the Year of Faith, I hope you have been taking several opportunities to learn more about our beautiful Catholic faith. Lenten season is truly a special season. We take opportunities to look into ourselves and see how we are in relation to God: "Is God number 1 in my life? If not, why? And how can I change that?" "When people see me, do they also see Jesus?" Early in this Lenten season, I came across something on the internet that was contributed by LMMyers, titled "Isn't it funny?" I included it below because it really helps us re-think how we treat God and others.

Funny how a $20.00 bill looks so big when you take it to church, but so small when you take it to the mall.

Funny how big an hour serving God looks and how small 60 minutes are when spent watching television, playing sports, sleeping or taking a lunch break.

Funny how long a couple of hours spent at church are but how short they are when watching a good movie.

Funny how we get thrilled when a football game goes into overtime, but we complain when a homily is longer than the regular time.

Funny how laborious it is to read a chapter in the Bible and how easy it is to read 200-300 pages of a bestselling novel.

Funny how we believe what newspapers say, but question what the Bible says.

Funny how people scramble to get a front seat at a concert, but scramble to get a back seat at the church service.

Funny how we cannot fit church special events into our schedule with our yearly planner but we can easily schedule other events quickly.

Funny how we look forward to that big date on Friday night, but complain about getting up for church on Sunday morning.

Funny how we are rarely late to work, but always late to church.

Funny how we call God our Father and Jesus our brother, but find it hard to introduce them to our family.

Funny how small our sins seem, but how big their sins are.

Funny how we demand justice for others, but expect mercy from God.

Funny how much difficulty some have learning the gospel well enough to tell others, but how simple it is to understand and explain the latest gossip about someone else.

Funny how we can't think of anything to say when we pray, but don't have any difficulty thinking of things to talk about to a friend.

Funny how we are so quick to take directions from a total stranger when we are lost, but are hesitant to take God's direction for our lives.

Funny how people want God to answer their prayers, but refuse to listen to His counsel.

Funny how we sing about heaven, but live only for today.

Funny how people think they are going to Heaven but don't think there is a Hell.

Funny how it is okay to blame God for evil and suffering in the world, but it is not necessary to thank Him for what is good and pleasant.

Funny how when something goes wrong, we cry, "Lord, why me?" but when something goes right, we think, "Hey, it must be me!"

Or wait...maybe all this isn't so "funny" after all.

Fr. Christopher Klusman

Easter 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the Gospel proclaimed during the Easter Vigil (Luke 24:1-12), women from Galilee bring spices to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus in burial. They found the stone rolled away with no sign of the body of the Lord. Instead, they discovered two men in dazzling garments who announce, "Why do you seek the Living One among the dead? He is not here, but He has been raised."

In the Good News of the empty tomb, the Church proclaims that Jesus Christ was so filled with the power of life, that death could not hold Him. In bursting forth from the tomb, our Lord manifested His power to empty from life all the evil that sought to capture and confine it. All of the bitterness and regret, the alienation and isolation, the anxiety and worry, and the fear and trepidation that seek to block our path of life and entrap us, have been rolled away with the resurrection of our Lord.

This Easter, as you hear the proclamation of the empty tomb, may you unite your heart and soul with the risen spirit of the Living One and feel His power setting you free to live in the joy of His eternal promise!

A Blessed Easter,

Love One Another

March 5, 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This past Sunday, a local television crew came to the Cathedral to interview me. They asked me the usual questions: “Archbishop, when do you think that the conclave will begin?” “How long will it take the cardinals to make their selection?” “Who do you think will be elected pope?” However, the one really interesting question was, “What effect will the new pope have on the Archdiocese of Milwaukee?” Well, I guess he could change the archbishop. That would be one immediate effect!

Seriously, the new pope will cause excitement. There will be a scramble to get to know him. He will be an immediate celebrity. In 1977, a cardinal from Poland gave a lecture at the Catholic University in Washington, D.C. on Thomistic Phenomenology. Only approximately two dozen people attended the presentation. If you had been in attendance, you could have spent an hour personally discussing the merits of this philosophical approach. A little more than a year later, that Polish cardinal would be elected Pope John Paul II. No one cared about his subject matter and you’d consider yourself lucky to get within a hundred yards of him, as millions thronged to see the new pontiff. Many people, who never had an interest in Eastern Europe, tried to learn as much about Poland as possible.

Whoever becomes the new pope will generate an interest in him, and in the country, region or city of his origin. If it’s Cardinal Dolan, St. Louis will be declared a national shrine city, and if it’s Cardinal Harvey, Milwaukee will become the Catholic center of the United States – if not the universe. The bottom line is, the next pope will offer his vision that will help to shape the Church for the next decade.

There are those that will hope that the pope will make the Church more relevant by becoming more in tune with the secular world. I don’t believe that it’s the Church’s mission to become more relevant to the world but, rather, to transform the world (“He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him” John 1:10). The message of the Gospel is the good news of salvation. It calls believers to be countercultural – to live not just for themselves, but to live for others. Believers are called to live as witnesses to the sacrificial love of Christ and transform the world as we LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

Alive in faith,

Most Reverend Jerome E. ListECKI
Archbishop of Milwaukee

A Lenten Reflection What to Give Up???

- Give up Complaining---focus on gratitude.
- Give up pessimism---become an optimist.
- Give up harsh judgments---think kindly thoughts.
- Give up worry---trust Divine Providence.
- Give up discouragement---be full of hope.
- Give up bitterness---turn to forgiveness.
- Give up hatred---return good for evil.
- Give up negativism---be positive.
- Give up anger---be more patient.
- Give up pettiness---become mature.
- Give up gloom---enjoy the beauty that is all around you.
- Give up jealousy---pray for trust.
- Give up gossiping---control your tongue.
- Give up sin---turn to virtue.
- Give up giving up---hang in there!
