It is hard to believe how fast the year 2013 has gone by. Hope you will enjoy the pictures (on pages 10 & 11) of some events that we did throughout the year.

As we start the new liturgical year with the Advent season, we should be proud of our Catholic faith because we have increased our awareness, grown stronger and been able to defend our faith!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

DEAF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION MINISTRY

SHARING THE GOOD NEWS

Joyful! Joyful! We Adore Thee!

The words above express the mood that is going on in the Delavan Deaf Ministry! If you are looking for a joyful place to be, Delavan could be a top pick!

Our Deaf religion classes have a busy agenda going on this coming month! We have five WSD students in our middle school class. They are learning about Advent and how that connects to Adam and Eve. They will be working on a drama of the Christmas story also.

We have five students in our high school program. Confirmation retreat for our high school students will happen on Nov. 20th. This is after the deadline for this newsletter so hopefully I can share more about that with you next time. We are also preparing the way for the Lord during the Advent season. Of course our annual pizza Christmas party is creeping up on us too and that is always very popular. We will joyfully celebrate our faith!

We are so excited about the new Confirmation DVD and curriculum that came out through National Catholic Office of the Deaf (NCOD). The DVD is in ASL and Father Mike Depcik, along with Deaf actors, and Deaf students do such an amazing job explaining certain aspects of our faith. They share stories of the saints. They tell us what Confirmation is all about. I must tell you that the first time I viewed this DVD, I started crying. I was crying tears of joy because it is that good! It is a wonderful teaching tool. It makes my job so much easier too. I highly recommend this DVD for high school students preparing for Confirmation naturally, BUT I also recommend this for adults to view. It helps all of us learn about our faith and beautiful stories of the lives of the saints. It might be a good idea to ask your parishes to purchase this DVD for the Deaf to check out and view. It is a wonderful resource and I joyfully thank NCOD for taking on this project and doing an excellent job!

Other exciting news in Delavan is that Delavan Deaf Adults are learning so much from their monthly Bible study time with Father Christopher. O.K. we also incorporate a bit of fun in the evenings too...but we behave. (See accompanying photos.) It is a blessing to spend the evening together learning things that we never knew before about our faith and bonding together as Christians.

Father Angel Anaya, the associate pastor of St. Andrews has joined us a couple of times before our Bible studies begin. He enjoys meeting us and laughing with us. He is enthusiastic about learning ASL, and we are happy he enjoys spending time with us. He mentioned that we are a fun group and treasures the opportunity to get to know the Deaf Catholic community!

We can't help but be thankful to God for the Delavan Deaf community and for the many opportunities we have available to learn about our faith and the God who loves us so much! Realizing these blessing sometimes can overwhelm me with great emotions of thankfulness and JOY. Our God saves! Come, Lord Jesus, come!

Fr. CK's Corner

Many of God's blessings to you during the Advent and Christmas seasons.

At sunset last Saturday evening of November 30, 2013, we began our new Church Year. Happy New Year!

As I look back to this previous Church Year, I wanted to thank all of you, Deaf and Hard of Hearing "brothers and sisters in Christ," for your time, service, and energy that you gave to our Church. When I see you at Mass, Stations of the Cross prayer service, Advent Penance Service for Confessions, or doing nice things for others, the most important thing is that it honors God! Isn't that a GREAT feeling to honor God that we want to do it again and again and again! Sort of like the pink Energizer Bunny! All for the Glory of God!

I also wanted to thank our sign language interpreters who have worked with us this past year. Your time, service, and energy are appreciated.

With Christmas arriving soon, we will receive Christmas cards and gifts. Ask yourself: what is the greatest gift given to me and others? It is what St. John the Baptist tells us: the gift of Jesus' Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity that we receive every weekend at Mass! Thanks be to God!!

I look forward to another new year with you. Please keep me in your daily prayers, as I do for you too. God bless you!

Meet the DHH Advisory Council Member - Tim Gall

I am Tim Gall. I was born in Waukesha, Wi. I have three brothers and one sister, and I am the oldest in the family. Growing up, all my brothers and sister went to a Catholic school at St. William's in Waukesha and I went to a mainstreamed school instead. I had to go to religion classes after school, every week for years while my brothers and sister didn't have to because they were already in a Catholic school. I had always complained and said it was not fair that I had to go to religion classes after school, while my brothers and sister did not. My Mom always explained the Mass and sermon after church for years, even after I graduated from High School and college.

As time went on, I went to the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and graduated with a B.A. degree in political science. I had worked odd jobs, cutting the grass, doing yard work, etc. I had went to R.I.T. in 1998, for one year. There I met a friend and moved to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. to work for my friend's Dad at a rental store. Later I then moved back to Wisconsin.

I now work full-time painting and part-time cleaning at nights at UW-Waukesha. I live in a small condo in downtown Waukesha.

I met Fr. Chris Klusmann before he became a priest. My Mom saw him at Schoenatsatt in Waukesha and asked me to meet him. So, I did. Chris K. had told me that he was studying to become a priest. He invited me to the seminary a few times and showed me around in there where I had never been in before.

After Chris K. became a priest, I started to go to Mass at St. Roman's because it was so much easier to understand what was going on during the Mass.

I am now glad my parents, especially my Mom telling me about the Catholic church, because it sure makes a big difference in my life with everything! It is too bad all my brothers and sister do not go to Catholic Mass anymore, and one became an atheist, which is too bad.

With Fr. Chris, wow! I have learned far more than anything ever before about God, the Catholic faith, angels, other religion's ideas, etc. from him than I ever had learned growing up.

So, I am on the DHH Advisory Council because Fr. Chris had asked me to and I thought sure, why not try to get more young deaf people to church. Too many deaf people of all ages tell me church is not necessary or needed. It would be difficult task to do, but not impossible.

Meet the DHH Advisory Council Member - Arvilla Rank

Who am I? My name is Arvilla Rank. I grew up on a farm in Luxemburg, Wisconsin. This is about 17 miles northeast of Green Bay. I am the oldest of five. I attended a one-room school until the third grade. In January of that year, I had Spinal Meningitis and became Deaf. I was out of school until the following September when I entered St. Mary's Catholic School for the next two years. During this time, I made my First communion and Confession.

The following fall I entered Howe School for the Deaf in Green Bay. This was an oral program. I stayed with a family in Green Bay during the week, i.e. Monday morning to Friday evening. I was in the Deaf program full time for the fifth and sixth grade. In the seventh grade, I transferred to Washington Junior High School for half days. In the eighth and ninth grades, I attended Washington Junior High full time. I attended East High School and graduated in June 1954. I graduated from St. Norbert College in June 1958 with a BS in Business Administration majoring in Accounting. From the seventh grade through college, I attended regular schools with no interpreters.

After graduation, I worked as an audit reviewer for Wausau Insurance Company in Wausau, for three and a half years. Next, I worked as an accountant at St. Agnes Hospital in Fond du Lac, for four and a half years. While I worked in Fond du Lac, I began volunteering for my parish and for three years taught a hard of hearing boy, aged 9 to 11, in CCD classes.

Beginning in the fall of 1966, I taught business and math at St. John's School for the Deaf for 15 years. I also served as advisor for the school yearbook for 11 years. While at St. John's, I returned to school. I earned an MS in Business Education from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. I also received an MS from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in Special/Deaf Education. The last degree was the first time I had signing teachers or interpreters for class. We often had student interpreters as the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf was just beginning to certify interpreters.

In October 1981, I became an independent Living Coordinator at the Southeastern Wisconsin Center for Independent Living (SEWCIL, now Independence First) in Milwaukee. I remained at SEWCIL for eight years. At that time, there were fewer than ten people on the staff. Today there are more than 1,000. In November 1989, I moved to Madison to work in the Division of Rehabilitation (DVR). During the eight years at DVR, I served as a Program and Planning Analyst and the Director of the Office for Hearing Impaired. I retired from DVR in September 1997. I moved to Maryland to become the Executive Director of the National Catholic Office for the Deaf (NCOD). I retired from that position in September 2006. Since that time, I have worked as the Project Coordinator for NCOD on a part-time basis from my home. The English edition of one of the projects, "Strengthened in Faith: Confirmation" is now complete. The English edition of "Liturgical Prayers in American Sign Language, Basic Congregational Responses in the Mass" will be complete by the time you read this. We have had both projects translated to Spanish. The Spanish editions have received Imprimaturs. We expect the Spanish editions to be finished soon.

In Maryland, I completed the Hearts Aflame, Archdiocesan Faith and Ministries Formation Program. This made me a Certified Catechist. I was on the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) team for Deaf Adults for nine years.

In addition to work and school, I was involved in several organizations through the years. The main organizations were the International Catholic Deaf Association (ICDA) and the Wisconsin Association of the Deaf (WAD). Currently, I am the editor of the Deaf Catholic, the ICDA publication. In addition, I have been involved in advocacy to improve access for Deaf and Hard of Hearing people.

I am happy for the opportunity to serve on the Archdiocesan Deaf and Hard of Hearing Council.
