TERRI'S MEMO:

Dear Friends,

Summer is coming to an end and the start of the fall season is right around the corner, I am looking forward to see the colorful leaves of autumn which reminds me how wonderful God is with His artwork!

Deaf/Hard of Hearing Ministry Office (DHHMO) has been very busy working on different projects for the new fiscal year. We had a booth display at the 11th Annual 3 Deaf Club Picnic on August 20th in Darien, WI. A big "Thank you" go out to all the people who have volunteered their time to help set up and meet with the people who stopped by to see what our office is all about. DHHMO also had an exhibit at the Cousins Center when all the Directors of Religious Education (DRE) and Directors of Youth Ministry (DYM) had their fall meeting. This was a good way to display and explain our program to them. We are now working on to reach out and collaboration with the other Archdiocesan offices.

Father Christopher Klusman, our Associate Director, continues to work part-time with the DHHMO and Chaplain for St. Thomas More High School.

Patty Kostechka, the Coordinator of the Deaf Religious Education program in Delavan, is busy getting ready for the new school year with students from Wisconsin School for the Deaf (WSD). Patty also coordinates the interpreted Masses at St. Andrew Church, sets-ups the Bible study session and keeps people informed of the Catholic Deaf Community events in the Delavan area. A big "Thank You" to Patty for all her hard work.

The Deaf/Hard of Hearing Ministry Advisory Committee (DHHMAC) had a workshop given by Eve Dicker-Eiseman on team building. This was a very informative sessions on how our advisory committee can be effective by working together and with others to move forward with our Pastoral Plan.

A very special "Thank You" to our members who served on the DHHMAC for many years, Margaret Calteaux, Clark Christensen and Arvilla Rank. They have shared with us their wealth of knowledge and experiences as strong members and participants in the Catholic Deaf/Hard of Hearing community. I have valued their expertise and leaderships. They were wonderful people to work with and I learned a lot from them. They were always available to help when needed.

We will continue with the fall season of "Catholic That!" series. It is nice to have people come together to learn from each other. We will have three different speakers to share their knowledge with us, one session in the months of September, October and November. (Please see enclosed flyer on the topics, page 6).

Save the date for March 17-19, 2017. We will have a weekend Lenten Retreat with Jeannine Adkins from Topeka, Kansas. More

MISSION STATEMENT - DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING MINISTRY

The Deaf and Hard of Hearing Ministry in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee exists to enable all Catholic Deaf and Hard of Hearing people to participate fully in the liturgical, educational, pastoral, spiritual, and human concerns ministries in the Church.

FR. CK'S CORNER

By Fr. Christopher Klusman

On Saturday, October 1, there will be a special event taking place at the Cousins Center that I hope and encourage you to sign up to attend. It is FREE and sign language interpreters will be provided. Arrival times are between 8 - 8:30 a.m. There will be morning drinks and snacks. Then everyone will be seated by 8:30 a.m. The event will go from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The event is focused on two of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee's goals from the Synod: Vision for the Future: Evangelization and the Sunday Mass. The event is to help us make the effort to live our lives every day like Christ: through our signs, words, and actions. It is to make it a daily mission: every second, every minute, every hour, every day, every week, every month, and every year for the rest of our lives. So, what will happen during this event?

Beginning at 8:30 am, Archbishop Listecki will lead us in prayer and give us a talk. He will introduce the themes for the morning. Then at 9:15 a.m., Fr. Phillip Bogacki and Susan McNeil will talk about how the Sunday Mass (the Eucharist: Jesus' Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity) is at the heart of our mission and the importance to always be formed constantly as disciples of Jesus, sharing the Good News!

There will be three interpreted workshops, but you will only be able to choose two. For the workshop that you are not able to attend, you can ask others for their notes and/or have them explain the main points of that workshop. The first interpreted workshop (Round One) begins at 10:15 a.m., while the second (Round Two) begins at 11:15 a.m. One interpreted workshop (1% Challenge to Get to Know Jesus) will be provided at BOTH 10:15 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. slots. The second interpreted workshop (Leadership with Mission in Mind) will be provided at 10:15 a.m. (Round One), while the third interpreted workshop (Hospitality Is Our Joy: We're All Called to be Parish Ambassadors) is provided at 11:15 a.m. (Round Two).

At 12:10 p.m., you will join everyone again for the Wrap-up and Closing Prayer. At 12:30 p.m., you are welcome to stay for lunch (meal: Cousins Subs).

Everyone is invited! Bring your family and friends! Make sure you go on-line today to register. If you don't have a computer, contact Terri Matenaer for she can help you: www.archmil.org/Synod2014/Vision/Leadership-Gathering/SaturdayRegistration.htm. Type in your First and Last Names, your email address, your Parish (you can type in "Deaf/Hard of Hearing Ministry" instead), city, and position (Choose "Other" and type in "Parish Member"). Make sure you click on the box for "Sign language interpreter."

Also, click on what workshop you want to go for Round One and Round Two. There will be no sign language interpreter for the workshops on "Sunday is Our Day: Music, Message, and Ministries" and for the Spanish community.

Just in case, your choices for Rounds One and Two are:

Round One: 1% Challenge to Get to Know Jesus
Leadership with Mission in Mind

Round Two: 1% Challenge to Get to Know Jesus
Hospitality Is Our Joy: We're All Called to be Parish Ambassadors

When you are finished with registration, don't forget a very important step: click "Submit." May God bless you and I hope you will enjoy this wonderful event!

information will be available later.

In closing, I would like you to reflect on this quote:

"Do little things with great love." — St. Mother Teresa

Enjoy the beautiful autumn season. God bless you all.

Blessings,

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION

Evangelization and the Sunday Mass: Moving from Maintenance to Mission

- Fr. Phillip Bogacki, Pastor – Christ King and St. Bernard Parishes, Wauwatosa
- Susan McNeil, Director – Nazareth Project for Marriage and Family Formation

Our new archdiocesan mission statement calls us to change the very culture of our archdiocese and our parishes. It's time for us to rethink parish life and everything we do – and to move from membership-based communities to communities of disciples of Jesus who proclaim and share the Good News. At the heart of our mission is the Sunday Mass, which calls us to reach all people by calling, forming and sending disciples.

WORKSHOPS

Sunday is Our Day: Music, Message and Ministries

- Fr. Brian Mason, Pastor – St. Mary Parish, Hales Corners
- Mitchell Owens, Director of Music & Liturgy – St. Eugene Parish, Fox Point

The Sunday Mass is our opportunity to invite people into an engaging prayer experience that involves good quality hymns, homilies and hospitality.

Hospitality is Our Joy: We're All Called to be Parish Ambassadors

- Barb Vite, Parish Stewardship Director – Archdiocese of Milwaukee
- Michelle Nemer, Associate Director of Synod Implementation – Archdiocese of Milwaukee

We are all called to live out the mission and extend a sense of hospitality, invitation and companionship, whether we are a parish secretary, pastoral minister, volunteer leader or average parishioner.

Leadership with Mission in Mind

- Fr. Don Thimm, Pastor – Holy Apostles Parish, New Berlin
- Fr. Matthew Widder, Pastor – Holy Name and St. Clement Parishes, Sheboygan

Designed for key parish leaders (priests, parish directors, deacons, and laity), this workshop will name the mission of the Church, discuss the importance of having a missionary focus, explore how to build a leadership team around mission, and share practical strategies for making mission happen in the parish.

1% Challenge to Get to Know Jesus

- Rich Harter, Director of the John Paul II Center for the New Evangelization – Archdiocese of Milwaukee
- Margaret Rhody, Associate Director – Office of Evangelization – Archdiocese of Milwaukee

This new practical initiative from the Office of Evangelization helps people build a habit of getting to know Jesus by taking 1% of their day (15 minutes) to pray with the Gospels for 30 days. This workshop will explore how this free resource can be used in a variety of ways to foster intentional lives of prayer and discipleship.

Una uture para el uture: La evangelización y la Misa dominical (10:15-11:00 a.m. solamente)

- Gabriela Cabrera, Directora de Educación Religiosa, Parroquia de San Patricio, Racine
- Jesus Villanueva, Director de Coro – Parroquias San Adalberto, San Rafael el Arcángel, Milwaukee

Este taller es para dialogar sobre el documento de la nueva Evangelización y la Misa dominical. El enfoque será sobre los tres “Principios Fundamentales” y “Recursos para la Misa” incluyendo maneras prácticas para su implementación.

El reto del 1% para llegar a conocer a Jesús (11:15 a.m.–12 p.m. solamente)

- Fr. Jose Gonzalez, Pastor – St. Adalbert, Prince of Peace/Principe de Paz and St. Vincent de Paul Parishes, Milwaukee

Esta nueva iniciativa práctica de la Oficina de la Evangelización ayuda a las personas a desarrollar el hábito de apartar tiempo para conocer a Jesús asignando un 1% de su día (15 minutos) para orar con los Evangelios durante 30 días. Este taller explorará cómo este recurso gratuito puede ser utilizado en una variedad de maneras para fomentar vidas intencionales de oración y discipulado.

TWO YEAR JOURNEY OF MINISTRY FORMATION PROGRAM (MFP)

By Mary Ellen Martens

In the beginning of my first year of MFP, I was a bit frightened because I had no idea what it was all about and I had no advance visualization of what kind of homework would be given. Will the teachers be nice or strict? Will the teachers expect too much from me? You may have a clear picture of what went into my mind. Honestly, I was relieved that everything wasn't that bad. Teachers were great. Classes meet 6 times a year (3 in the fall and 3 in the spring, no winter or summer months). One weekend per month is sufficient and an ideal arrangement.

The first few months were mind-boggling as I tried to remember what I was supposed to do. However, I met my classmates for the first time. I was anxious and bit my nails. But, after I learned that they were nervous about meeting me, that broke the ice and we felt cozy in our company. FYI: We are the largest class in MFP history; the number was 9. Currently the number is 8, due to the financial issue the guy had to leave. (I do hope he will come back someday.)

Sr. Rita Wiggington, MFP Coordinator, assigned us volunteer sheets. For the first year students they have to complete 10 hours of volunteering; 2nd year students 20 hours; 3rd year students 30 hours, and 4th year students 40 hours. By the end of the school term we handed out our volunteer sheets and the reflection connecting to what we experienced from it. Sr. Rita also assigned us to do our duties. What are our duties? We do prayer services (morning and evening), prepare liturgy ourselves (1st Reading, Psalms and 2nd Reading) and we each take turns to be an altar server. Indeed, we were very awkward and made many mistakes during the first year. We eventually picked up pretty fast during the second year. We "settled down" and were more confident than the first year because we knew what to expect and learned to express ourselves better. We worked as a team.

During the first year the teachers were very dedicated in helping us. They encouraged us to find out who we really were. In two classes we had to perform our projects so that we expressed our thoughts through action; to me it was more like a drama class. I learned a lot from different classes by different teachers; for example, Fr. Tony is proficient in church history while Msgr. Glenn Nelson is an expert in church issues and canon law. Also I enjoyed watching my classmates sharing their questions and opinions. We enjoyed talking with each other and the teachers after classes ended at 9pm on both Friday and Saturday for our social. We got to know each other better.

Last May 15th was very special because we witnessed the fourth year students' graduation. There were lots of tears and hugs. We were saddened to see them go. The day before (the 14th) we, 2nd year students, threw a surprise party for them.

In summary, my classmates are more like my second family. We help each other prepare for church services, projects and homework. We take time to help one student, who is fluent in Spanish but knows English fairly, to catch up in class because we want to graduate together. She is my sister in Christ. Anyway, during our two years I become enthusiastic and want to get involved with deaf ministry. Please pray for me to achieve my goals within two more years, especially during the time I have to deal with my parents' health issues.

ICDA-US MIDWEST REGION HOLDS CONFERENCE

I had the honor of representing the International Catholic Deaf Association-United States (ICDA-US) Chapter 7 as delegate to the ICDA-US Midwest Regional Conference. The conference was at the Marriott Northwest Chicago Hotel in Hoffman Estates, Ill. ICDA-US Chapter 10 of Chicago was the conference host. Chapter 10 along with Joliet, Illinois Chapter 46 hosted the first Conference fifty years ago in April 1966. The theme of the 2016 conference was "Faith Journey: Past and Present."

Patricia Flannery Slisz was Chairperson of the Conference. The conference opened with benediction celebrated by Fr. Christopher Klusman. Fr. Christopher chaired the liturgy committee for the weekend.

Fr. Joseph Bruce, S.J. who is responsible for the Catholic Deaf Archives at the Holy Cross College in Worcester, Massachusetts gave excellent workshops Friday evening and Saturday morning. He talked about the newsletters written around the United States by the Catholic Deaf Community. He is working to collect full sets of newsletters, whenever possible. He has copies of Hand in Hand and What's Up newsletters. He also has copies of the ICDA official newsletter, The Deaf Catholic. If you have saved old newsletters and do not know what to do with them he would be happy to have the newsletters or other papers about the Catholic Deaf Community. This is especially important for older people to pass on what they have saved so the newsletters are not thrown out. This is the Deaf Catholic History. I am happy that Fr. Joe is interested in this history. He has more than 90 files of documents. Friday night after Fr. Joe's talk, everyone enjoyed the 50th anniversary receptions. Saturday afternoon the officers, moderators and delegates had a meeting. The Midwest Region Officers include President: Margaret Calteaux, Secretary: Patricia Slisz, Treasurer: Toby Petrie, and Past President: Jean Cox. The officers told us that ICDA now has 139 chapters. The newest chapter is in Mexico.

Fr. Christopher Klusman gave a report on the Young Deaf Adult Program at the ICDA-US Conference in Cleveland in July 2015. Other people Reported about things happening in Korea and Argentina. Delegates voted to make donations to the Ministry Formation Program in Chicago, Korean Deaf Community, Argentina Deaf Community, and the ICDA-US Young Adult Program at the Conference in St. Louis in 2017. The meeting was good. The 2018 MWR Conference will be in Milwaukee.

The Very Rev. Ronald Hicks, Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Chicago celebrated Mass with priests present at the conference concelebrating. This was followed by a celebration of the 40th Conference banquet. Fr. Joseph Mulcrone of Chicago was the keynote speaker and spoke on the history of the MWR. Member of the year awards went to Susan Koehn of Milwaukee and Janette Fields of St. Louis, Missouri.

▲ Midwest Region President Margaret Calteaux presents "Member of the Year Award for Sue Koehn to Arvilla Rank, delegate for Chapter 7. Patricia Slisz, Conference Chairperson and Secretary, looks on.

▲ Keynote speaker, Fr. Joe Bruce, S.J.

Congratulations to Sue and Janette.

This was a very successful and enjoyable conference. We had opportunities to see many old friends and meet new people.

Thank you for the opportunity to represent Ephpheta/ICDA Chapter 7 at the Conference.

Blessings to all of you!

WE CELEBRATE THE MEMORY OF OUR BELOVED SISTER MARY CLAUDE (LOUISE) TELDERER - DECEMBER 19, 1922 - JULY 8, 2016

Sr. Mary Claude was born in Milwaukee, Wis., and was given the name Louise at her baptism on December 31, 1922. Her parents, Thomas and Frances (Poglitsch) Telderer, had emigrated from Austria. The family belonged to St. Boniface Parish where Louise graduated from elementary school. She then attended Messmer High School for three years before joining our congregation on August 28, 1940, and completing high school at St. Mary's Academy. On August 11, 1941, Louise became a novice and received the name Sister Mary Claude.

On August 12, 1943, Sister Mary Claude made her first profession and began her ministry that fall at St. John School for the Deaf. She assisted Sr. Bertrand Raab (+1991) with the youngest children. During the next several years, she attended Cardinal Stritch College (now University) on a part-time basis and completed her bachelor's degree in 1952. After February 1976, Sister Mary Claude lived in various residences in the area, but continued to teach first grade at St. John's until the school closed in 1983. At this point, she had devoted 40 years to the care and education of young deaf children, and her transition to other ministry was a challenge.

Sister Mary Claude then assisted Sr. Carolita Bott (+1996) with the care of the Motherhouse grounds for two years. Subsequently, she taught at Hanna Boys Center, Sonoma, California and at St. Coletta of Jefferson, Wisconsin, 1985-1992. Sister Mary Claude was an aide in St. Ann Adult Day Care, at our Motherhouse, for two years. She retired in 1994 and celebrated her 70th jubilee of her profession in 2013.

Since 2001, Sister Mary Claude lived at Clare Hall and continued her work with cancelled stamps and finding buyers for them. In this way, she and all the sisters who worked with her contributed to mission needs at home and elsewhere. Sister Mary Claude was dedicated to helping others, and in her later years, as health issues arose and her mobility decreased, she said her great challenge was "accepting" what is.

Sister wrote that, "All of my life I knew deep in my heart that I wanted to be a Sister. During the turbulent times, I read the lives of several Religious Foundresses." She experienced joy in the beauty of the four seasons, fresh air, the Eucharist and marvelous people. Fun times included playing cards and keeping up with people by writing letters.

Gratitude was a constant theme in her reflections as a Jubilarian. "I have been very blessed. I thank God for letting me serve Him Faithfully." (1993, 50th Jubilee). "I am ever grateful to God and to our Community. I am grateful to all who have positively reinforced me." (2003, 60th Jubilee). "I have been very blessed in my Religious Life." (2013, 70th Jubilee).

Sr. Mary Claude's health changed rapidly and she moved to the Motherhouse for closer observation on July 2. She was admitted to hospice at Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center on July 7. Sisters Jane Denning and KD Strandell and two nephews were with her when God called her home the evening of July 8, 2016. Her death was peaceful; she had finished her work.

One of Sister Mary Claude's favorite quotes comes from a poem by Ruth Mary Fox, "„ that the Lamp of my Life has burnt out for Thee." And to God she can now paraphrase the words of the Psalmist: "Your word [was] a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path." Psalm 119:105
