Little Sisters of St. Francis

The Little Sisters of St. Francis (LSOSF) were founded in 1923 by Mother Mary Kevin Kearney, a missionary from Ireland. The Mission of the LSOSF is to reach out with compassion to the poor and marginalized of our society, following in the footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi.

Currently there about 850 members serving in Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania and a few sisters in USA-Mission. The ministries of the LSOSF include care for the homeless street children, the orphans, children with diverse disabilities, single mothers, the elderly, people living with HIV/Aids and feeding programs for children from poor families.

The LSOSF are also involved in education, health care and pastoral and diverse social service in the missions.
