Sankofa Pilgrimage
Ghana, West Africa
October 8-22, 2020

Sankofa means "return and get it" and is a symbol of the importance of learning from the past. In 2001 and 2017 the Office for World Mission hosted a Sankofa Experience focused on connecting with the cultural roots of Ghana, West Africa. In 2020, we will once again travel to Ghana with the backdrop of 2019's “Year of Return,” acknowledging 400 years since the arrival of the first enslaved African in America, our trip will be a time of introspection, reflection, culture and prayer. Fr. James Arthur, pastor of All Saints and St. Martin de Porres will be our pastoral guide.

To learn more about this pilgrimage please attend one of the information sessions, hosted by Fr. James Arthur and Antoinette Mensah, Ph. D., Director of the Office for World Mission.
