GREAT ARCHIVES BAKE-OFF! MONDAY, OCTOBER 27, 10-11 A.M.

Calling all bakers — the Great Archives Bake-Off is back in celebration of American Archives Month!

Before we had cooking blogs and Instagram to scroll for recipe ideas, there was the parish cookbook. Parishes often compiled cookbooks as a way to celebrate anniversaries, fundraise and share stories. Many of these can be found in our archival collections. So, take a step back in time and join us in the tradition of sharing recipes in the old-fashioned way.

NEW THIS YEAR!

- There will be five categories, with a limit of five entries per category.
- Initially, bakers can sign up for one recipe. If there are spots open after the sign-up period, entrants will have an opportunity to bake more recipes.

TO ENTER:

- Visit the Archives from September 8 to October 20 to browse cookbooks and find a recipe.
- Bring your baked item to the Great Archives Bake-Off the morning of Monday, October 27.

- Only recipes found within our archdiocesan archival collections are eligible. Complete details are available in the Archives.

VOTING and PRIZES:

- The Great Archives Bake-Off will take place Monday, October 27, 10-11 a.m.
- MMCPD staff will vote for their favorite baked good in each category.
- All bakers will receive a Jeans Day Pass.
- Top bakers and recipes in each category will get announced in News You Can Use.
- Best in Show — the baked good with the most votes overall — will be awarded the coveted Great Archives Bake-Off Pie Tin!

For more info, reach out to Shelly x3407, Amy x3431 or stop into the Archives!

DAILY MASS

Daily Mass returns on Monday, September 8, at noon in the Mater Christi Chapel. All are welcome!

PARKING AT THE PASTORAL CENTER

Those of you who park in the Staff Parking Lot may have noticed that a gravel parking area was installed a few weeks ago. This parking area was created to increase parking for the Seminary. We ask that MMCP staff do not park in the gravel area, as those spaces are designated for the seminarians. If your office is in the C-Wing, we ask that you continue to park in the Staff Parking Lot. If the Staff Parking Lot is full, you may park in the Main Parking Lot or in the parking spaces near the statue of Mary Mother of the Church.

If you have traveled to the back parking lot (Parking Lot 5) you may have noticed that a large yellow “S” has been painted in 30 of the parking spots. These spots are to be used by seminary staff, seminary guests and seminarians assigned to park in Lot 5.

The 40 parking spots that do not have a large yellow “S” are to be used by the following offices: Tribunal, Seton Schools, Archives, Diaconate Formation, Deaf Apostolate and Office for Clergy staff located in the back part of the Pastoral Center. In addition to these offices, the 40 spots in Parking Lot 5 are also to be used by Diaconate Formation on Class Days — Tuesday evenings and Saturdays. Hispanic Lay Ministry will use the open 40 spots on the opposite Saturdays that Diaconate Formation does not meet. We thank you for your attention to these parking details.
