Historical Note

Archbishop William E. Cousins established the Albert Cardinal Meyer Institute in July 1968. This institute provided an ongoing program of continuing education for clergy, religious women, and specialized pastoral personnel. The institute was open to ordained and lay ministers of all faiths. It featured basically short-term courses, offering lectures, workshops, and seminars covering various aspects of the pastoral mission and ministry, such as Theology studies, counseling, communications, and administration.

Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.

Correspondence, program brochures, and program information, such as schedules, attendance, evaluation, and newspaper clippings. The correspondence files contain correspondence and miscellaneous materials from the early history of the Albert Cardinal Meyer Institute, an institute established for the continuing education of clergy and religious women, and papers from Gerald Hauser who had served as director. Also, filed separately is the correspondence of Robert Gloudeman, associate director after the institute's founding.
