Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.

This collection contains materials from the Catholic Family Life Program, which was primarily an informal adult education program whose purpose was to sustain, strengthen, and promote Christian family living. This program presented conferences, retreats, publications, family events and other programs, and the Christian Family Movement (CFM).

The CFM was a specialized movement for married couples; its basic form involved parish-centered small groups. While CFM operated as an autonomous formation program, it remained a part of the family services supervised by the Catholic Family Life Program. CFM topics related to family life, marriage, parenting, church, and community.

The Catholic Family Life Program general files (boxes 1 and 2) contain: annual reports (1960-1968); Newsnotes, the Catholic Family Life Program newsletter (1956-1977); pre-Cana outlines (1952-1966); press releases (1969-1977); programs (1959-1967); several cassette programs; and a number of miscellaneous folders.

The boxes of scrapbook pages (1944-1973) contain newspaper clippings, photographs, programs, schedules, and bulletins.

The CFM general files (1949-1976) contain: a file of general information on CFM; convention materials (1964-1970); lists of contact couples and chaplains (1958-1970); correspondence (1949-1970); various committee materials (1959-1970); meeting materials (1959-1971); newsletters (1949-1950, 1967-1971); and a number of miscellaneous files. Regional materials at the back of box 10 (1960-1969) consist of lists of programs, correspondence, lists of contact couples and chaplains, meeting materials, and reports relating to regional activities.
