Administrative Note

The parish was founded in 1886 to serve the English-speaking (mostly Irish) residents of the south side of Racine. The original building was built at the corner of 11th and Grand, with the first floor used for school and the second floor used for church services. The school was staffed by Racine Dominicans when it opened in 1888. A larger church was built in 1904 on the opposite corner, with the school taking up the rest of the original building. Six classrooms and a gymnasium were added to the school in 1957. In 1969, due to declining enrollment and fewer religious available to teach, the school was closed. The school building was used as a parish hall and leased to community organizations such as the Racine County Opportunity Center, the Peppermint Gymnastics Academy, and the Community Action Agency. A parish council was formed in 1978, and there was repeated discussion that the parish might close in the early 1980s. In 1998 St. Rose and four other Racine parishes merged to form St. Richard Congregation.
