SEPTEMBER HABIT

LABOR FOR THE LORD

GIVE EACH DAY TO GOD WITH A MORNING OFFERING PRAYER.

GIVE EACH NEW TASK AND TRIP TO GOD WITH A "HAIL MARY."

GIVE EACH HARDSHIP TO GOD PRAYING: "I TRUST IN YOU!"

The Background

The Christian community, like the Israelites before us, has long been interested in the question of how to understand the place of work and labor in God's plan for us and for the world.

One of the consequences of the sin of Adam and Eve is that we now have to exert ourselves in ways that can be tiring and even painful as we carry out the tasks of living. Work makes us sweat and makes us sore!

This is related to the deeper problem that humanity has wrestled with from the beginning: the problem of suffering itself. We have always struggled to find meaning in hardships of any variety.

The habits chosen for September emerged out of the Christian response to labor and to suffering. We are invited to view all of the tasks of our day, big or small, as a participation in the creative work of God and also in the offering of the Cross. We are invited to receive our hardships patiently and with trust in Jesus who suffers for us, and with us, and even through us.

Making a morning offering prayer each day is a way of putting the day ahead of us in perspective, reminding us that all of it belongs to God. Making a "Hail Mary" before each new quiz, baseball game, homework assignment, household project, or trip in the car reinforces the truth that whatever we are doing, we are doing it for God. Offering up our sufferings with a simple prayer teaches us to view suffering with patience.

In all these efforts, our work and even our sufferings have the power to make us holy as we are joined, through them, to Christ.
