Guiding Questions for Cultural Challenges in Catholic Schools

School Culture

- What are several of the key cultural challenges currently faced by our school community, both as individual members and as a community of the whole?
- In what specific ways, through the incorporation of Catholic Social Teachings into our policies, curriculum, and programming, does our school community “promote a culture...often in opposition to the greater culture?”

Racism

- What evidence of racism, in thought, word, or actions, exists within our school community?
- What specific measures do we take to ensure that the dignity of all members of our community is protected, respected, and appreciated?

Civic Participation for the Common Good

- In what ways do we teach students about their responsibility to become faithful citizens and to assist them in forming their consciences in light of the Gospel and Church teachings?
- How are we intentionally modeling and developing positive communication, reflection, and problem-solving skills in all members of our school community?

Economics

- In what ways do our actions, policies, and decision-making reflect our responsibility to prioritize the needs of the poor and vulnerable?
- To what degree is our school community committed to being “accessible to students of all backgrounds, abilities, and academic goals” and to effectively meeting their needs?
