

Day 23 | Give Your Gift

In today's One Percent Prayer, Margaret invites you to take a step toward giving of yourself generously to bless God and others.

In today's reading, Mary gives generously to Jesus and the fragrance fills the whole house, blessing everyone who's present.

The more we get to know Jesus, the more we want to show him our gratitude, to give him the best that we can, something that will bless him. Remember, whatever you do for the least of Jesus' brothers and sisters, you do for him.

Every one of us has something to give. Your gifts don't have to be perfect to be a blessing. Jesus loves your gifts because he loves you. You can give a gift of your life that will bless Jesus and others. Start the treasure hunt to find your gift and give it generously.

Today, we invite you to reflect with Jesus, what is a gift you can give him that will bless him and others? Take a step toward beginning to give it generously.

Consider what you're good at, activities that bring you joy, ways that others have said you have blessed them, or actions that others seem to ask of you frequently. How might you offer your time, efforts, or resources to bless others and our Lord?

Know that we're praying for you as you embark upon the adventure of finding and living in the blessed intersection between your gifts and the world's need.
