

“Courage is doing the work of God!”

– Saint Pope John Paul II

Courage is an apostolate of the Roman Catholic Church, endorsed by the Pontifical Council for the Family, that ministers to men and women with same-sex attractions and their loved ones.

Courage of Southeastern Wisconsin is a local chapter serving Catholic men and women in the Milwaukee and Southeastern Wisconsin area under the guidance and support of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

Benefits of becoming a member of Courage:

- Greater understanding of same-sex attraction and homosexuality
- Ability to meet others and share in the struggle
- Ability to be heard and understood
- Access to an abundance of resources
- Emotional support
- Spiritual support
- Fellowship
- The love and mercy of Our Lord, Jesus Christ

The Calling of Saint Matthew
by Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio

Who Can Join?

Courage of Southeastern Wisconsin is open to Catholic men or women, age 18 and older, who struggle with same-sex attractions, desire support and healing, and are looking to live a chaste life in Jesus Christ.

You may reach us by e-mail at courage@archmil.org. Confidentiality is assured.

Learn more at:

- www.johnpaul2center.org/Nazareth-Project/CourageEnCourage
- www.couragerc.org